

DR. JAY LABINE, STRATEGIC MEDICAL ADVISOR, INTEGRATED CARE DELIVERY

Dr. Jay LaBine is an executive physician leader who has a passion for innovative payer-provider solutions that improve health and healthcare. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated a patient centered population health approach to care delivery transformation. Ten years ago, Dr. LaBine, as CMO of Priority Health, was a significant partner and thought leader for Tandem365. He collaborated closely and contracted with Tandem365 founders to launch Tandem365 in West Dr. LaBine is an accomplished surgeon who specialized in general surgery, trauma surgery and renal transplantation. He transitioned from full time surgical practice to full time Chief Medical Officer so he could be fully dedicated to impacting health care system improvement. His business acumen, clinic insights, executive leadership and collaboration skills have helped health plans, value based provider organizations and private equity backed healthcare companies achieve successful financial and health improvement outcomes. Currently, he provides consulting services for multiple entrepreneurial healthcare organizations.